Introduction

There are over 1 billion people online everyday. These people are using the Internet to find information, find entertainment and for communication with others. As an affiliate, we want to put our marketing material in front of prospective customers to redirect them to our "Affiliate System".

There are countless options for you to get Internet traffic to your affiliate pages. As such, I won't be able to cover ALL the possible methods to get traffic to your site. However, I hope the suggested options listed in this guide gives you a good base to start from.

Paid or Free

When it comes to getting traffic you can either pay for it or your can earn it or you can have a combination of both.

Paid advertising is quick, easy and effective. You just need to be certain that your commissions from successful referral sales are greater than your advertising costs.

Free traffic online is not really "free" in the sense that you need to put in some work to get this traffic. For example you need to spend time signing up for sites, submitting links and in many instances you need to create effective content and place it in the right places online in order to get enough traffic to produce sales. If you are on a tight budget you can start off with free promotion methods until you can afford to use paid strategies.

Generally, as long as your affiliate system is producing sales, I recommend using both free and paid strategies to drive as much traffic as possible to your websites.

Preparation

When you set about getting traffic, you need to decide on two things. Firstly, you need to decide on the strategy you are going to implement. This decision will affect where and how you get traffic to your site.

Second, you need to think about the marketing angle or "hook" to get your prospect interested in what you have to say. This decision will impact the marketing material you place in front of your prospects to get their attention.

Traffic Generation Strategies

Here are some of key strategies for getting traffic to your website. To apply these strategies effectively, you need to have a clear idea about the people who are eventually going to buy the product you promote

1. Keyword Intercept and Redirect. The Internet works with keywords and keywords phrases. Your prospective customers will be using very specific keywords to find information online. By determining what these keywords are, you can place your ads or affiliate links on the resultant search results page. Alternatively, you can optimize your websites around these keyword phrases to get search engine to list your sites in their search results. Either way, your goal in this strategy is to insert your links into the information search process and redirect these leads to your websites.
2. Infiltrate the Nest. Instead of redirecting traffic, you could go to the places where your prospective customers already are online. Your prospective customers would frequent particular discussion groups or social network groups. You can access these groups, and leave links back to your affiliate pages. Caution: You must do this in a subtle manner, as being too aggressive in this strategy will be counter-productive and may even get you banned from these sites.
3. Grow a Garden. If you want to catch butterflies, you could either use a net and chase after them or you could grow a garden and attract them to you. If you understand your target market, you could start a discussion group or service around a core topic of interest. For example, if you are promoting the SGR Program, you could start a Facebook group that send out inspiring quotes from the book or the movie "the Secret". This way you will attract targeted traffic to your site and they will invite others too. You can promote your affiliate links in a non-intrusive way as a footnote or PS whenever you send out the inspiring quotes or stories.
4. High Traffic Sites. If you do not want to pay for PPC ads and if you cannot wait to build up your site ranking on search engines, you could place content on other high traffic sites and to get traffic back to your own site.

For example, website likes Squidoo and Hubpages allow you to create content around any topic of interest. You can also make use of the traffic on video sites like YouTube and even publish presentation slides on services like Scribd or Slideshare.net. All these websites have high traffic and allow you to post content for free.

5. Get Viral Traffic. Another strategy to build up traffic is to implement a viral campaign. You can offer an incentive for someone to pass on your message. You can also create some content, either a free report or video that is so interesting, shocking, amusing that people will naturally feel compelled to forward it on to others.

The Marketing Angle or “Hook”

When I refer to the “marketing angle” or “hook”, I am referring to the reason why someone will click on your advertisement or your link.

For example, if you are promoting the SGR Program, the marketing angle or hook could be that the Law of Attraction or the movie “the Secret” is incomplete. This is using curiosity. By using this “hook” or theme, a person who is genuinely interested in the Law of Attraction or “the Secret” would definitely want to learn more.

Alternatively, you could try a “sell by giving” which always works well. Specifically, you could send your visitors to a squeeze page that offers free access to 7 Free Lessons or exclusive videos that feature great content from Bob Proctor and the other teachers.

This allows you to build an email list and the content is already ready-made for you in the affiliate resource area. Just send your leads there after they sign up on your list.

Another example is that if you are promoting registry cleaning software, your marketing angle could pose the questions “computer running slow? You need to clean your file registry! Click here to learn more”. Do you see now why the marketing angle is important?

Without a good marketing angle, the response to your ads and marketing effort will be very low indeed. The point here is that you need to have quality as well as quantity to get the best results from your traffic generation efforts.

Endless Traffic Generation Options

Once you have your marketing strategy and marketing angle figured out, there’s virtually no end to how much traffic you can generate to your affiliate sites.

You can now mix and match the various online activities to target the marketing options and the marketing elements to deliver your marketing message based on your marketing angle your affiliate system.

Traffic Generation Guide

There is literally no end to the amount of traffic that you can generate to your affiliate websites. As long as your affiliate system is converting into sales, the more traffic you generate to your site the more money you will make.

The forgoing action guide will give you a very good overview of how to get enough traffic to make your first $1,000 online. The traffic sources listed here is by no way exhaustive nor is it meant to be.

The objective here is that once you get the general idea of how to create traffic, you can continue to expand the traffic sources and earn more and more affiliate income.

Traffic Source 1: Article Marketing

Submit 5-10 articles each week to the top article directories online.

www.Ezinearticles.com

www.Buzzle.com

www.ArticleBase.com

www.Searchwarp.com

www.SelfGrowth.com

www.GoArticles.com

www.Web-Source.net

www.ArticleAlley.com

www.Amazines.com

A note about duplicated content.

You should edit the articles to ensure that your articles are unique and not duplicated. If everyone submits the same article, it may be rejected and chances are Google would not include the article in their database.

If you do not wish to write articles on your own, you can pay someone to do it. Go to outsource directories like www.elance.com or www.rentacoder.com to find a good article writer. It would generally cost between $5 to $10 to have articles written for you.

Alternatively, you can take existing online articles and run them through software that will automatically modify the article using synonyms and alternate expressions. Personally, I've never used these type of software before but I understand from fellow marketers who use them that they are quite effective too.

Traffic Source 2: Classified Ads

Classified ads directories are another good source of traffic. You can post on free classified directories and also paid ones too.

www.Craigslist.org

www.INetGiant.com

www.ClassifiedAds.com

www.USFreeAds.com

www.AdLandPro.com

www.TheAdnet.com

www.ClassifiedsForFree.com

www.WebCosmo.com

Traffic Source 3: Press Release

You submit an online press release for your websites and repeat this monthly. Press release directories will syndicate your announcement to many other websites automatically via RSS. This method can also generate good traffic to your webpages.

www.I-NewsWire.com

www.PR.com

www.Free-Press-Release-Center.info

www.PRFree.com

www.PRLeap.com

www.PRWeb.com

www.PRWebDirect.com

Traffic Source 4: Submit Your Slides

Submitting presentation slides is a relatively new and interesting way to promote your website. Some of these new web 2.0 services have a very high page rank and your keyword rich presentation slide can rank very highly on Google's organic search results.

Here are some of the recommended websites where you can submit your presentation slides for free.

www.SlideShare.net

www.Slide.com

www.Scribd.com

Traffic Source 5: Participate in Forums

Go to www.ForumFind.com or do a Google Search <http://tinyurl.com/5flkz8>) to find the forums that are related to your market. For example, a simple search for "law of attraction” reveals thousands of possible forums where you can participate in.

The screenshot shows the ForumFind search interface. At the top, the 'ForumFind' logo is displayed. Below it is a search bar with the text 'law of attraction' entered. The search results are listed below, showing one result. The result is titled 'Law of Attraction and Interaction Text - Physics Forums Library' and includes a brief description of the archived thread. Below this, there are several other forum links related to 'Law of Attraction', including 'Unexplained Mysteries Discussion Forums > Law Of Attraction', 'gravity and Newton's law of attraction', 'The Secret "Law of Attraction"', and 'Manifesting a Law of Attraction forum on MDC! - Page 3 ...'. Each result includes a short description and a 'Labeled' tag.

A simple search on Google or on forum search engines will reveal thousands of forums where you can promote your program.

Remember, do NOT spam these forums or you will get banned and create a negative perception towards the program you are promoting. The best way to market your program in a forum is first to join interesting and popular conversations. Try and add real value to the discussion and leave your website link as a signature file.

This is a very acceptable way to promote your website in a forum and you will not get banned for doing so. As always, please read the forum rules and regulations before participating in the forum to ensure that you conduct yourself ethically in these forums.

Traffic Source 6: Social Bookmark Your Links

Post links to your websites on social bookmarking websites.

<http://Del.icio.us>

www.Digg.com

www.Listible.com

www.Furl.net

www.30DaysTag.com

www.BlohHop.com

www.FeedMarketer.com

www.Google.com/Notebook

www.StumbleUpon.com

www.Simpy.com

www.BlinkList.com

An easy way to promote your links on multiple bookmarking websites at once is to use services like www.onlywire.com

There are also tools that allow you to submit your links to many social bookmarking websites at once. Here are some of these tools:

Traffic Source 7: Pay Per Click Traffic

Start your Pay Per Click Campaign to get fast traffic. Top 3 Website that provide good Pay Per Click traffic.

<http://SearchMarketing.Yahoo.com>

<http://Adcenter.Msn.com>

If you need help getting started with PPC marketing, use the resources found here:

<http://www.google.com/adwords/learningcenter>

Traffic Source 8: Social Network Groups

There are many large social network sites that have niche groups with thousands of members. For example if you go to any of the social network sites below and search for the term "Law of Attraction" you will find many groups that you can market to.

<http://groups.yahoo.com/>

<http://groups.google.com/>

<http://groups.msn.com/>

<http://facebook.com>

<http://myspace.com>

<http://friendster.com>

Again, please respect the respective rules and regulations on these groups. Do not join a group with all your guns blazing promoting a product. You should start off by participating in discussions and leaving your links on your signature file.

When you become an accepted active member in the group, you can then begin posting new threads and discussions around your marketing angle.

Traffic Source 9: Submit Videos on Video Sharing Sites

Video sharing websites like YouTube have a very large user base. Generally, the videos you post on these sites will appear in the "new videos" section briefly and you can get traffic this way.

You can link back to your websites in two ways. First, you could place a watermark on the video you upload that contains your URL. This ensures that anyone viewing your video will definitely see your URL. The problem is that these links will not be clickable and so you will need to keep the URL short and easy to remember.

The other way to link back to your website is to include your URL in the video description. For YouTube, make sure you include the "<http://>" in front of your URL to ensure that the link is directly clickable from the description.

<http://youtube.com>

<http://blip.tv>

<http://dailymotion.com>

<http://metacafe.com>

<http://revver.com>

<http://vimeo.com>

<http://veoh.com>

Ultimately, you will want your video also be listed in the search results on Google search. There's a very effective service for getting your videos out to many sites at once. You can check out this service here: Visit <http://tubemogul.com/>

Traffic Source 10: Blog Directory

Blog directories organize blogs and blog posts into categories and indexes them so that they can be easily searched by keywords and tags.

Submitting your blog as many blog directories as possible will add more incoming links to your blog and blog posts. Additionally, this will also increase the page rank of your blog and increase the likelihood of your blog posts being ranked higher on Google's organic search results.

<http://www.blogarama.com/>

<http://www.blogsearchengine.com/>

<http://www.blogcatalog.com/>

<http://www.blogflux.com/>

<http://technorati.com/>

Traffic Source 11: Social Media

Social media is a form of democratic news selection. When you submit a news item to a social media service, other users will vote on whether the story is newsworthy. If many users find it interesting, the news items will rank higher and higher on the social news website's homepage.

If you can get your website or news story on the front page of the following social media sites, you can be assured of very significant traffic.

To get your story on the top pages of these sites, review the existing stories there. Try and write a blog post or article that adds value to the reader or provides a unique viewpoint.

Traffic Source 12: Squidoo and Hubpages

Squidoo and Hubpages are websites that allow you to create content around a particular topic. Many affiliates use Squidoo and Hubpages to promote their programs effectively by creating reviews and articles around their market niche.

One of the key reasons behind Squidoo and Hubpages success is that they have a very high page rank and is very popular with Google. You can also create backlinks to your blog and affiliate pages from sites like Squidoo and Hubpages.

Aside from Squidoo and Hubpages, there are several other alternative sites you can post content on.

<http://www.squidoo.com>

<http://www.launchtags.com/>

<http://www.tumblr.com/>

Conclusion

I hope that you can see by now that there really truly is no end to the amount of traffic you can generate to your websites. And therefore, as long as you have a valuable offer to promote that is proven to convert, it's just a matter of time before you build enough traffic to earn your first $1,000 online!

I hope you found value in the resources provided in this course. Make sure you:

1. Study and understand this material
2. Setup your first affiliate marketing system
